

PANAMA SOUND

A boutique recording studio in the Richmond Annex where professional gear meets creative comfort. Recording here feels like making music with a friend who happens to have incredible equipment Whether you're a solo artist, a duo, or a full band tracking live, there's room to breathe and create. The technology serves your music.

VIBE IS KING

Flat-rate sessions include tracking, mixing, and production support. You'll leave with a professionally recorded song. After your session, decompress in the backyard garden.
